

Thursday 17th May 2018

Dear Parents and Carers,

Royal Wedding Celebrations at Willow Green

Please be reminded that we will be having a 'red, white and blue' non-uniform day at Willow Green tomorrow, the 18th May, to celebrate the Royal Wedding. If your child would like to take part, they can wear red, white or blue clothing. No face paints or hair dyes please.

School dinner tomorrow will take the form of a royal picnic lunch in a special commemorative box and will take place outside on the field (please see below an example of the lunch being offered). The lunch costs £2.10 unless your child receives free school meals or universal free school meals. Your child is welcome to bring a picnic blanket to share if they wish.

The Year 6 children will also be decorating biscuits to sell for 20p each at break time.

Yours sincerely,

Mr. S. Wynn

Head of Academy